Promotional of National Integration on Television

3778. SHRI B.K. HARIPRASAD: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) what is the quantum of appropriation for promotion of National Integration through slots in TV both on national network and prime-time Metro channels;

(b) what is the percentage of slum population having access to TV programmes;

(c) whether Government would also consider installation of TV sets in community centres/public places in slum areas to ensure better exposure to Government programmes and policies; and

(d) whether Government would also make use of All India Radio channels both on national network and also in regional services to promote the message of national integration?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI K. P. SINGH DEO): (a) While Doordarshan has not earmarked any specific quantum of time for this purpose, the message of national integration is emphasised by it through programmes in various formats/spots on a regular basis.

(b) Such statistics are not available.

(c) There is no such proposal.

(d) Such a use of AIR is being made for many decades now.
